

Mr. Larry Trenton Campbell

September 17, 1953 - January 29, 2014

Larry was born on September 17, 1953 to Eugene and Betsy Mae Campbell at Camp LeJeune Military Base in Jacksonville, NC. His parents, brother Eugene Jr., sister Barbara and baby brother Joseph (Ricky) all preceded him in death. Larry departed this life on January 29, 2014 at Hunter Holmes McGuire VAMC in Richmond, Va. while awaiting a liver transplant. He is survived by his endearing brother Michael: aunts, Lena Peoples and Ruth Warren: uncles; James Peoples and James Fuller: nieces; Renee Addison-Rice and Shawan Campbell: nephews, Andre Addison and Joseph Campbell Jr. and a host of cousins, great nieces, nephews and friends. Larry grew up in Washington DC where he excelled in sports and dancing. A graduate of Roosevelt High School, he later served in the United States Army. Following a productive career as a Teletype Technician at Xerox. He later followed his passion for dancing. He was the director of the Baltimore based television dance show; The Moon Man Connection. He was briefly married to Barbetta Campbell. He later moved with his Baltimore Church Fellowship to Tempe, Arizona. Upon returning to D.C., Larry became active in his fellowship with N.A. He mentored people who had challenges with substance abuse and recovery. A Ride-On driver for the Montgomery County Government, in his spare time, he became an avid golfer devoting many days on area golf courses with friends. He leaves to cherish his memory, many neighborhood friends, family and his N.A. family all of whom supported and visited with Larry throughout his health challenges to the very end of his life. Love was the thread that bound him to so many. His last words were; 'Tell everyone I Love Them!' Larry loved the Lord and now he is with Our Father Who Art in Heaven. Amen
