

Ms. Louise Underwood

June 6, 1927 - February 26, 2014

“The clock of life is wound but once. And no one has the power to tell just when the clock will stop at late or early hour. Now is the time you own—live—love and toll with a will. Place no faith in tomorrow for the clock may then be still”

Mrs. Louise Underwood entered into eternal rest on Wednesday morning February 26th, 2014 from her loving daughter’s residents in Upper Marlboro, MD. Louise was born in Washington, D.C., to the late Victor Johnson and Cassie Reynolds on June 6, 1927. She was married to the late Frederick C. Underwood. She was educated in the D.C. Public schools. Louise was employed at the Pentagon in Arlington, VA. She always loved to shop and go to the dance hall and do the “Jitterbug”. She had a giving and sweet spirit. Last but not least, she loved the Lord, always shouting out a praise.

Louise touched many lives. She leaves to cherish her memories with her three loving daughters: Joann Underwood-Goldring (Michael), Rose Graves, and Betty Underwood; two sons: Victor Benton (Cleo) and Charles Underwood; one devoted sister, Ms. Ethel Kitchings; five grandchildren: Nicole, Tiffany, Michael, Josette, and Travis; great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and many friends.

She was preceded in death by a son, Frederick Underwood, Jr. “Bay Brother”.
